SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT BUR! LINGTON, IOWA.

Vice-President Stevenson, Governor Drake and Many Officials Fall with the Wreck-Only Slight Injuries Inflicted-Celebration a Success-Thirty Thousand People Present.

Burlington, Iowa, Oct. 2.-The otherwise auspicious opening of Iowa's semicentennial celebration was marred Thursday by an accident in which Vice-President Stevenson and Gov. Drake of Iowa were slightly bruised. A reviewing stand was erected for the convenience of Vice-President Stevenson, Gov. Drake, the ladies of the party, can workmen and preserve our own mastiff, decorated with gold-colored his personal staff, the state, county markets to our own people." and city officers, state and city commissioners and the heads of committees. This stand gave way as the procession was passing. Some forty persons fell to the ground fifteen feet below, injuring many slightly. The ladies of the governor's party, his daughter, Miss Mary Lord Drake and Miss Carpenter, of Des Moines, escaped un-

The stand had been built over a sort of depression in the ground just south Bryan and the silver cause has been of the union depot, and the forty or more persons on it were hurled to the bottom of this hole, fifteen feet below, amid a wreck of broken timbers. The scene was a most terrifying one, and for a few moments the utmost confusion reigned in the vast crowd assembled to witness the parade. It seemed as if a terrible stampede would begin, but cool heads managed to quiet those around them, and the work of rescuing the injured was at once begun.

A salute of guns at sunrise inaugurated the celebration, and by 9 o'clock the gayly decorated business streets were jammed with people, 30,000 being a conservative estimate of the outside crowd. It was governor's day and the city was full of marching feet and the air was melodious with band music. The exercises began at 9 o'clock in the morning with a reception to Vice-President Stevenson, Gov. Drake and his staff at the Hotel Delano. At 10 o'clock a grand parade moved through the principal business streets of the city.

Filled With Horror.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 2.—Railroad communication with the eastern and middle parts of the state has just been re-established, and harrowing tales are being received of the West India storm which swept over the peninsula of Florida Monday night and Tuesday morning. Cedar Keys is said to be almost completely wrecked. From there the storm swept in a northeasterly course, its diameter being about forty miles across the state, doing fearful damage at the towns of Gainesville, High Springs, Newberry, Lake City, Bronsford, Callahan and many others. Brick and frame buildings were blown down, and near Callahan several children were killed in a schoolhouse which was wrecked. The wind is reported to have reached a velocity of 100 miles an hour. It is impossible to learn how many persons were killed, zut it ls believed the dead will be fully 100 and that many others were injured. Much damage is reported at Jacksonville, but no los of life. The storm was a twisting tornado that moved with great rapidity from the gulf to the Atlantite coast. In many places buildings were wrecked in less than a minute, and scon afterward the sun was shining brightly. SIX MEN ARRESTED FOR SELL-ING LIQUOR

The Prosecutions Based on the Evidence Gathered by a Local Amateur Detective, Against Whom Threats Are Made-Some Pay Fines and Others Will Fight.

Sharon people are up in arms over the illegal sale of liquor, and six men have been arrested. They are: August Kompff and Arthur Truax pleaded guilty and paid fines. D. G. Morris, druggist, will have a hearing on D. W. Lowell, druggist, to be examined on Horace Underhill, druggist, to be examined on M. J. Mahoney, will have a hearing on

For several years, it is said, there has been illegal selling of liquor carried on in Sharon, notwithstanding the fact that a large majority of the voters of the village corporation expressed themselves against licenst at a places, the liquor men went on until they were caught in the act of selling whiskey, beer and wine, and it is said that the proof against them is so Koshkonong where he has been strong that if all the cases of violation | camping. were brought against them it would land them behind prison bars.

Business Men Took It Up. Before any complaint was made against them, the temperance people were continually confronted by the venders and their friends with the assertion that "more liquor was sold in Sharon without a license, and the thing ought to be stopped or else give them a license." At the same time it was claimed that nothing but "malt" and "soft drinks" was sold.

The business was carried on at such high rate and the temperance element was accused of neglect of duty in the firm of Bennett & Cram. enforcement of the law, not only by the venders themselves, but by their patrons and sympathizers, that two citizens and earnest temperance men assumed the task of bringing the violators to a halt in their unlawful busi-

FOREST PARK CAR RAN AWAY. But for a Passer-By, a Bad Accident Might Have Resulted.

Motorman Thomas Kelly and a lady passenger, took a wild ride on the Forest park car yesterday. As the car was ascending the East Milwaukee street hill, and just as it reached the top, the trolley jumped off the wire. After setting the brake, Kelly climbed Japan. to the roof of the car to remedy the trouble, and while he was on the roof, the brake loosened and the car began to run down the hill. A lady passenger, realizing her perilons position, jumped. The calls of the motorman as the car whirled around the curve, attracted a passer by, who managed to catch the car, and setting the brake, prevented what might have been a bad accident, as when the car struck the switch it would have ditched the entire outfit, if its speed had not been slackened.

DEED WAS RECORDED It Conveyed Considerable Marinette Prop erty to Milwaukeeans.

The names of two Janesvillians appear upon a deed executed in 1863, conveying a considerable section of the city of Marinette, which has just been filed in the office of register of deeds of Marinette county. The deed was executed by Samuel Bailey, C. R. Capron and Jefferson Sinclair, of Chicago and Janesville, to Nelson Ludington, Harrison Ludington and Daniel Wells, Jr., of Milwaukee. It conveys all that property now included from Isaac Stephenson's residence to a point on Hall avenue, near the postoffice, and from the middle of Hall avenue to a point south of the N. Ludington company's mill. The transfer was made in 1863, and the deed is made out entirely in manuacript. It was recorded in 1874, in Oconto county, but never until this week in Marinette county records. The consideration was only $3,000 for land which is worth about $100,000 now, and which embraces some of the best buildings in Marinette, including the new hotel The N. Ludington hotel occupied part of the site at that time, and was known as the I. Stephenson mill.

Workingmen realize that somebody must lose in the hanky-panky changes that Mr. Bryan recommends. If free coinage will ease the burden of a man who owes $1,000 it will surely be at the expense of the man to whom he owes it. If it will make a legal ten- of vice-president. FEAR OF A SILVER MAN.

There are dangers about Bryanism outside of the currency question. J. J. Hagerman, chief owner of the Mollie Gibson silver mine, of Colorado. makes a striking acknowledgement of this. He has concluded that the

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE election of Bryan would be a calamity would accrue to him as a silver pro-

> He was asked to subscribe to the actional democratic fund and has written the following letter to Dr. R. C. Brown, the Colorado manager:

> 'After mature deliberation I have concluded the danger that is likely to follow the success of the democratic-populist combination would outweigh any possible benefit, and I cannot contribute to the democratic campaign fund either personally or through the company in which I am interested."

> The danger of giving great executive power to a flighty, theatrical, young man like the Boy Elecutionist of the Platte, seems to be recognized in the west as well as in the east.

Very few workingmen believe with Mr. Bryan that this nation is looking or a chance to dodge its debts. The debts of the American people and of their government are backed by a solemn obligation to pay a hundred cents on the dollar in money as good as the best in the world. Free coinage means currency debasement and currency debasement means partial repudiation. Repudiation is not a good thing to talk among workingmen who pay thir own bills and who expect other people to do the samn.

McKinley to Farmers.

There is no uncertain sound about the words which Major McKinley addressed yesterday to the great delegation of farmers which called upon him at his home.

In terms of stirring earnestness, the republican standard bearer proclaimed fearlessly and explicitly what can be expected of him when he is installed in the chief magistracy of this nation. "The republican party," he declared, "is for sound money, every dollar worth 100 cents; every dollar as good as gold, and is opposed alike to free and unlimited coinage of silver and the issuance of irredeemable paper money." Again: "We cannot have commercial prosperity without the strictest integrity, both of government and citizen." "The republican party has maintained every form of American money, whether silver or paper, equal to gold, and it will not now take 75 will go at 50c. any steps backward."

These are golden words in more senses than one. More significant 40 will go at $8.00. still, these sturdy sentiments were received with "tremendous cheers" by the great audience of farmers who heard them.

This speech was not exceptional with Major McKinley. Whether his visitors consist of commercial travelers, railway employes, steel workers, Union 7 and (! MR. JEARDEAU SEES A BIG LAND-SLIDE LICAY.

RAILWAY SOUND MONEY LEAD. ER HERE.

Wisconsin's Showing in the McKinley Column Will Break All Records-No Railroad Man Forced To Vote as the Company Directs-Big Change in Sentiment.

"Wisconsin will give the largest republican majority in her history this fall" said R. O. Jeardeau in conversation with a Gazette reporter this morning. Mr. Jeardeau is a conductor on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road and secretary of the State Board of Arbitration. He is one of the leaders in the sound money campaign of the railroad men and consulted with President Hinrichs of day. the local railroad sound money club before he left for Chicago. Mr. Jeardeau is one of the best known railroad ware Co. men in the state. He has served more than thirty years in the railroad ranks as brakeman and conductor. He has been very active in the organization of the railroad men, and when Governor Upham wanted a railroad men for a member of the State Board of Arbitration, Mr. Jeardeau was the unanimous choice of his fellow employes all over the state. Hence his appointment as a member of the board.

No Coercion Used.

Mr. Jeardeau was the chairman of the great Sound money meeting at the Auditorium, Chicago, when President M. E. Ingalls spoke, and at that time he denied that the railroad men were being forced to join sound money clubs. In conversation with The Gazette reporter today, he confirmed the report of a phenominal change of front among railroad men on the silver question. Early in the summer many of them were for silver. As soon as they saw how a fifty-three cent dollar would cut their wages, they swung in line for McKinley, almost to a man.

"It isn't the result of coercion,"said Mr. Jeardeau today. "No road in Wisconsin has exercised the least influence on its men-and would accomplish precious little if they did. Railroad men are not the sort to take orders about their votes. No, the railroad men are for McKinley because made. they want better times."

Argument For Serious Thought. If you are a person with business experience, either man or woman, you will realize that the step we have taken in adopting this strictly cash system of doing business is one that certainly will help the purchaser as well as ourselves. You know that the charging of goods becomes a matter of habit with many people, and that the best of us are irritated and even surprised at the amount on the presentat on of a bill for dry goods whenever it may be. You know that for many reasons we can afford to sell dry goods at a smaller margin when we are dead certain of receiving the cash for them when they are purchased. There are a great many people today who never buy a thing without paying cash for everything, and those people we will save money for; and we think with the saving of money sibly offer. MAJOR M'KINLEY SPEAKS TO MEN FROM NEW YORK.

A Large Delegation from the State of New York Called Upon the Candidate at Canton, Ohio-He Spoke as

"My fellow citizens: It is highly grat-Ifying to me to welcome to house and home citizens of the great empire State of New York. It is a proud thing to be a citizen of the first and greatest state in the American union, but it is prouder still to be a citizen of the mighty American nation. (Great cheering:) Your call at any time would have been most welcome, but your coming so far on an inclement day to testify your devotion to republicanism is a most impressive and significant act. I thank you for it on behalf of the Republican cause and congratulate you and the great people and state that you for the time represent upon the splendid pro pects for local and national success. (Applause.)

"It is difficult to realize-and I sometimes think that the country does not realize—that as immense as the agricultural resources of the west are, ye New York is still the first state in both the value of her farms and farm products. (Applause.) Your counties are among the most northwestern in that splendid group of magnificent agricultural counties stretching across your state, having in 1890 an assessed valuation of $1,056,176,141 and yielding anuually from your 23,000,000 acres $178,-000,000 worth of products. Your farmers, therefore, are quite as much interested in the proper settlement of the free silver, tariff and reciprocity issues in this campaign, which in importance dominate all others, as the Democratic administration and infarmers of any other section of the country, and so whatever may be said press, and, as I believe, by the masses on these subjects, the fact ought to be of the Democratic party. It is true that constantly borne in mind that the we, as Republicans, can take satisfacfarmers of New York are quite as tion in the fact that it would not have property at stake, as those of any other est support of Republicans, and none state or secton of the union.

Raising of Class Issue Denounced.

"The attempt to inflame the passions of the west and south against the east is, therefore, but a mischievous and unpatriotic effort to arouse prejudice and hatred against men of their own calling, affected by the same causes and feeling, the same business depression, as country. (Applause.) I have no sympathy, my fellow citizens, with a cause based upon mere hate and passion. It is beneath the aims and purposes of patriotic freemen and I am glad to note that it receives no encouragement from the sturdy citizens of New York. (Applause and cries of 'New York is all

"How strikingly the names of the illustrious Hamilton and the empire State of New York are inseparably connected. We cannot think of the great events of our history without at once associating them together; and we cannot recall any example of like nature so conspicuous unless it be the inseparable association of Washington and Jefferson with Virginia, and Lincoln with Illinois. (Applause.) Fortunately, these statesmen are our own countrymen, and we cannot too highly revere them, and however much they may have differed in administrative policies, they were always and at all times together for the honor of the country. (Great applause.) No man of his time left a more lasting impression on public legislation than the eminent leader in New York, Alexander Hamilton, who, more than any one else, secured her ratification of the United States constitution, and to whom we are more largely indebted than to any other citizen for our protective tariff written that this nation either encoursystem, which he always steadily supferson. (Applause.)

Hamilton on the Currency.

"We have heard a great deal in this campaign about the doctrines of the fathers. Hamilton favored both gold and silver money, though he preferred gold alone himself, and the government of the United States entered upon the use of both. Hamilton announced the great fundamental principle when he said: 'There can hardly be a better rule for any country for a legal curency than the market ratio. In other words, every coin should contain enough metal so that when melted Kinley.') Free silver means free trade. it will be worth just as much as when or market value always to be the same! applause and cries of 'He was right.') This was the doctrine of both Hamilning of the government.

known as the Sherman law, we insisted upon putting into that law the doctrine of Hamilton that the parity of the two metals must always be sacredly maintained. (Applause.) The Republicans wrote into that law, for both branches of congress and the presidency were in the hands of the Republican party, a solemn pledge, which is as binding an agreement between the government and people as was ever made. Here neusge: 'It is the established policy of the United States to maintain (Cries of That's right, major, hit them the two metals (gold and silver) at a HERE SET FORTH parity with each other upon the presbe established by law.' This was the act of the fifty-first congress, passed pose of preventing the free coinage of theless giving to silver the greatest possible use as money, and for that purpose providing for the utilization of substantially the full product of the American mines. (Applause.) "This is not the only declaration in recent years in support of the Hamilton idea of this parity. The fiftythird congress, elected in 1892, and Democratic in both branches, with President Cleveland as the chief executive, elected by the Democratic party, also recognized the doctrine of the parity. President Cleveland was so convinced that the coinage of silver was becoming a peril to the country that he called congress together in extraordinary session Aug. 7, 1893, and congrect his earnest solicitation, proceeded to repeal the purchasing clause of the so-called Sherman law, and in doing this wrote into our public statutes this express contract:

"'And it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to continue the use of both gold and silver as the standard money, and to coin both gold and silver into money of equal intrinsic and unchangeable value, this quality to be secured through international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as will insure the maintenance of this parity in value of the coins of the two metals, and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the market in the payment of debts.' (Great applause.)

"This was the act of the fifty-third congress under President Cleveland, an act by a Democratic congress and a Democratic President, approved by a dorsed everywhere by the Democratic much concerned, in point of actual passed the senate except for the earnmore prominently than Senator Sherman himself. But the Democratic party was solely responsible for our signment. The assets of the bank are legislation then, and its action bound the members of that party as strongly to the support of honest money as the fifty-first congress had committed the Republicans of the country to the support of the same doctrine.

what disregard for the right, for justice and expenses, and will pay every credand honor, can any citizen now demand | itor 100 cents on the dollar. that the government shall enter upon any settlement of our debts or scheme of coinage the confessed result of which would be to destroy the parity culation and reduce the value of silver and paper dollars still circulating nearly one-half? Hamilton and Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln, or Grant and Cleveland, never taught a doctrine so perilous as that. (Great applause.) The people of the United States will never adopt so discreditable and dangerous a course, nor will they fail to brand it with their condemnation whenever an opportunity is given them through ing a pili which stimulates the liver, the ballot. (Cheers.)

"The idle talk about the 'dollars of the fathers' and 'the principles and men of 1776' will do no harm, but it will never convince the honest citizen that Hamilton or Jefferson, or any other of our revered fathers or patriots, ever viewed with toleration any scheme of dishonest finance or contemplated for an instant the idea that the United States would cheat its people in their money or repudiate any obligations it ever made, either by expressed terms or implication. a depreciated currency

"I want to read what Webster said March 15, 1837, in your great state: 'He who tampers with the currency robs labor of its bread. He panders, by the Republican party for the pur- indeed, to greedy capital, which is keen-sighted and may shift for itself, silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, but never- but he beggars labor, which is honest, unsuspecting and too busy with the present to calculate for the future. The prosperity of the working classes lives, moves and has its being in established credit and a steady medium of payment. All sudden changes destroy it. Honest industry never comes in for any part of the spoils in that scramble which takes place when the currency of a country is disordered. Did wild schemes and projects ever benefit the industries? Did violent fluctuations ever do good to him who depends on his daily labor for his daily bread? Certainly never. All these things may gratify greediness for sudden gain, or the rashness of daring speculation, but they can bring nothing but injury and distress to the homes of patient indusry and honest labor.' (Applause.)

Rousing Majority Predicted.

"Now, my fellow citizens, grateful indeed am I for the honor of this call. I recognized you as citizens of Chautauqua and Cattaraugus counties when I first appeared on this porch. (Cheers.) I recognized the Chautauqua salute and the Cattaraugus cheer. (Renewed cheering.) I remember to have been in your state in 1894 and in your county, and I remember that the subjects that were agitating you then are agitating you now, and I remember that when you cast your votes in November you gave to that splendid citizen of New York, Levi P. Morton-(great cheering)-more than 150,000 majority. (Applause and cries of 'We will do it again.') What will your answer be this fall? (Loud cries of 'We will make it 600,000 for you,' followed by tremendous cheering.) Well, my friends, if you will do that Ohio will be well satisfied. (Great laughter.) It will give me pleasure now to meet and greet each one of you personally." (Great applause.)

THE CAR WINDOW.

t Resisted the Efforts of the "Strong

Man," But-They were talking about car winlows. It was in the smoking car of one of the Atlantic City express trains, and the man with the Trichonopolis had just sat down, after a ten minutes' wrestle with a blind that wouldn't oudge the sixteenth of an inch, despite his frantic efforts. The man with the five-cent straight had just finished telling the story of how he had broken his wrist one day last summer in try-Guest (at Mrs. De Fashion's Musicale) ing to oblige a lady who wanted her when the man with the Spanish hand-Mrs. De Fashion (helplessly)-I had made broke in and said: "I'll never an innocent-looking, harmless sort of a thing, and it had the delicate appearance of a sickly child. Yet there wasn't a man in the crowd who could pull it down to shut out the blinding sun. We yanked it, and jerked it, and banged it until we were thoroughly enraged and exhausted, and it never budged. Finally one of the number said he'd fix the blamed thing, and he went out into another car. Presently he returned with a big, thick-set man with a determined air, whom he introduced as Herr Rocks, the famous strong man. This athletic gentleman walked up to the shade and, placing one hand upon it, gave a firm pressure. It didn't move and he put the other mighty hand upon it. Still it remained intact. Then he looked surprised and gave the thing a vicious tug. But it seemed to be a component part of the side of the car, so firmly was it imbedded in its frame. Well, this strong man pulled and hauled until the perspiration rolled off him in a stream, and the wooden shade didn't seem to mind it a bit. He asked a few of us to go into the baggage car with him, and we did. He unpacked a big box there and rolled out a lot of iron chains and balls, and big dumbthe train hands we got these into the car. The strong man fastened his chains onto the obstinate shade, and with a mighty effort attached one of the dumb-bells to it. It didn't move a speck. Another and another of the weights he fastened to that delicatelooking piece of pig-headed cabinet work, until, gentlemen, would you believe it, 1,100 pounds were pendant from the thing and yet it didn't show a Parks-Don't? Oh, yes, there is, sign of the strain. We took the weight napped since he was born, two months | cred porter came along. We told him we'd give him $5 if he'd have the shade pulled down or torn out, and, you may believe me or not, but, gentlemen, he

THE LATEST STYLES FOR MEN!

There is a great difference of opinion in the minds of men as to the best shaped shoe for the foot and so to please the tastes of the many men we have so many styles for the cold season to come. that the most fas tidious cannot fail to find his proper last.

This English Bull Dog, (No. 1,) box calf, water-proof Shoe for $5.00 is an elegant shoe for most any man, and certainly is one of the best winter Shoes we carry. It's a new last for us.

This round toe shoe, (No: 2,) Vici Kid, with an invisible cork sole, is as soft as a glove; not necessary to wear it several days in pain just to break it in. It's right the first time your foot goes into it, $5 00 is all we ask for it. We have the same style in patent leather for dressy men.

The Sharp Toe Last, (No. 3,) makes any foot look well, and, as with all pointed Shoes, no matter how long you wear them they never get out of shape, and always appear first class, with the ex blood colors and black trimmings, that is most dressy for winter wear It's calf lined throughout and is a substantially made Shoe, We have

THE CASH PLAN MEANS A LITTLE SAVING ON EVERY ITEM!

You know this is a fact, we know this is a fact, and we shall prove it to your entire satisfaction.

Are you going to buy one dry goods item? You will make one little saving.

Are you going to buy ten dry goods items? You will make ten little savings.

The credit system is a drag on any mercantile business.

The cash plan is an Impetus to any mercantile business.

If you come to us under this cash plan of doing business you will soon learn to appreciate that your money will go further than under the careless method of buying on a credit system.

Getting goods charged is largely a habit and when your Dry Goods bill is presented you are surprised to see how much you owe. You didn't know it was so much.

Educate yourself and your family to buy carefully for cash and you will find that your money goes further in every instance.

There are thousands who always pay cash. It will pay those people to come to us. We will save them a little money on every item.

We propose to give our customers the benefit and our prices will convince you at once that the cash plan saves you money.

You know that a merchant can afford to sell cheaper for than on long uncertain credits.

Knowing that we can afford to do it we are going to do it, and let the matter rest with the people.

If you are going to buy Dry Goods for Cash come to us and save a little money.
